

Saturday 17th November – State Equestrian Centre, Brigadoon
Harness, Elementary, Intermediate & Open Ridden

It was unfortunate that with the running of the second Dual Code Spectacular horses and competitors had to endure the extreme and severe conditions of a heatwave before and over the course of the event. Due to the engagement of Eastern States judges and other issues of rescheduling, the organisers acting on the advice of authorities by elected to put in place procedures to ensure the welfare of both competitors and horses.

With only the one entry in the Harness classes, MynamesKenny and Kristie Morrone combined all his classes and worked the one class extensively on the ring displaying lovely rhythmic movement and softness that impressed the judge and drew comments ringside what a picture-perfect image they were. Due to the heat no other workouts were required, so was duly sashed Champion Harness Exhibit.

The Elementary Ridden classes were next on the agenda and with only the four horses competing, again the workouts were kept very brief for rider and equine comfort. Raymond John and Paula McGregor had a very successful start to the program when winning the Smartest on Parade and followed this up with some faultless work throughout the day to take out the Champion Elementary Ridden for 2019. Starzzz By Me and Peregrine Lilly both worked very consistent through the classes with Rosie Atkins and Peregrine Lilly receiving the Reserve Champion award in a very close call.

The Intermediate and Open riders and horses reluctantly left the shaded relief on offer as they were called ringside for their classes. With six open graded and two Intermediate class horses competing, the Smartest on Parade and Rider classes were combined with AP Burlesque winning Smartest On Parade followed by President Hoylake and Master Jaxon. The Champion Rider was awarded to the elegant duo of Kerryn Davy on her mount Presidents Hoylake and Reserve Champion went to Nadia Bishop and Master Jaxon.

Again, the workouts were kept very brief throughout with some competitors electing to sit some of the classes out. In the Intermediate section, Master Jaxon went through his classes undefeated and executed a lovely workout for his rider Nadia Bishop to secure the Champion Intermediate Ridden. Reserve Champion was awarded to the very compliant gelding Batavia Zap Kapow and his young junior rider S Stanley.

The Open section had four horses winning classes, making for an entertaining Champion workout final. The precise workout and pure 'Show Hack' demeanour of President Hoylake resulted in taking out the Champion Open Ridden Horse. Although not actually winning a class, the broken coloured Pinto mare Hopestone entered the ring and successfully challenged for the Reserve Award. The final curtain raiser was the more experienced Open horse President Hoylake taking on the less experienced Intermediate winner Master Jaxon for the ultimate in Supreme Ridden honours. Undoubtedly, due to the extreme conditions, Master Jaxon who was only competing at his second ridden show couldn't quite match the smooth going of his more experienced counterpart. The judge complimented riders on their horses before calling forward Kerryn Davey and President Hoylake forwarded to be sashed with a beautiful garland.

Sunday 18th November – State Equestrian Centre, Brigadoon
Led Classes

Some competitors took advantage of the stabling and amenities at the State Equestrian Centre and stayed overnight for the early start on the Sunday morning. It was such a relief to rise to a rather humid but cooler start to the day.

The Race Conditioned, Stallion and Junior classes unfortunately only had one single entry in each with the judge commenting the class of each of these individuals (Tajie Baby – Sue Wiscombe), (Mynameskenny – Kristie Morrone) (Aspasia – Kristie Morrone) was of a very high standard and deservingly warranted their Champion Sashes. The mare classes were very evenly contested that had the bold striding Sutter Hanover mare The Prodigy and Bec Phillips take out Champion Mare. The eye-catching Pinto, Hopestone and Chantelle Wells secured the Reserve. Black Pontiac for Kylah Madden struck an impression with the Judge with his bulk and strength when awarded Champion Gelding over the elegance and fineness of President Hoylake taking the Reserve Champion for Kerryn Davey.

All winners of the five categories entered the ring with a run in and presented for judging on side profile. After close inspection of conformation and general type the Junior Champion, Aspasia and Kristie Morrone were called forward for Supreme Led Exhibit. This three-year-old Rich And Spoilt filly was also awarded Champion Best Presented Standardbred along with Paula McGregor and Raymond John taking Reserve.

The Ancillary classes had a ring switch with Beverley Richards taking over in the Standardbred ring to judge the Show Hack and Show Hunter Led classes. Starzzz By Me was successful for Catherine Piper in the Show Hack category whilst Vallentino and Alex Markowski were awarded Reserve Champion. Black Pontiac made it a more than successful start to the day with a Champion in the Show Hunter section accompanied by Raymond John and Paula McGregor gaining Reserve Champion honours.

SPPHAWA would like to thank our wonderful sponsors for their support in the running of this event. Rugs, garlands and prizes were presented to each of our winners on each day.
